

LEARNING SUPPORT OPPORTUNITY FOR RECENT GRADUATE IN SW LONDON

Do you want to make a real difference to children's lives?

Can you spark interest in the students at our school for the subjects they are learning?

Ernest Bevin College is seeking enthusiastic and committed graduates to work with pupils as Learning Support Assistants. This is a hugely rewarding opportunity to make a real difference to the lives of young people. We will offer you the support you need to progress in your career and many of our LSAs go on to embark on QTS training and become qualified teachers.

Ernest Bevin College is a vibrant school full of young, enthusiastic boys who want to succeed. It's a school where the staff are dedicated to giving each and every student the education that opens doors to any path they wish to tread in the future.

We believe every student has the right to achieve at the highest level and be able to secure the very best qualifications. As part of this commitment we need a graduate to work within the Learning Support / Special Needs department to support identified students across the academic and social curriculum.

We need you to help some of our most vulnerable students to make the progress and achieve the results they are capable of. You will need to be flexible and be able to work under pressure. You must have an understanding of equal opportunities and be willing to build a rapport with young people in a professional capacity.

The successful candidate(s) you will join a team that will help to develop and hone the skills that enable you to have choices in your future pathway.
